

KINDERGARTEN
Reading
Student Name													Isolates the beginning sound of a word.	Process
													Segments two sounds.
													Segments three sounds.
													Understands the differences between letters and words.
													Demonstrates an understanding of directionality.
													Identifies all upper and lowercase letters fluently.
													Produces a letter sound, given name or symbol.
													Reads unknown words in grade level text.
													Reads grade level high frequency words.
													Makes and confirms predictions.
													Asks questions when meaning is unclear.
													Identifies characters in narrative.	Literary Text
													Retells with appropriate sequencing.
													Understands the concept of fiction and nonfiction.	Informational Text

Kindergarten
												Student Names
												Tells about experiences and discoveries, orally, through pictures, or in writing.
												Writes at least one sentence that sticks to the topic.
												Rereads writing for complete sentences and revises with assistance.
												Edits for end punctuation and capital "I" when referring to a person.
												Creates legible final draft with spacing between words.
												Spells grade level "No Excuse" words.
												Speaks daily in small and large groups.
												Adjusts use of spoken language to communicate effectively (tone, volume, word choice)
												Practices effective listening habits (asks and /or answers clarifying questions, monitors own work).
												Follows spoken directions.

															Kindergarten
Names															Math	Numbers and Operations	Estimates a quantity of objects (0 -20) and assigns a value orally.
																	Visualizes quantities six and under without counting by ones.
Orders and compares numbers 0-20.
Orders and compares numbers 0-20.
Breaks apart numbers 6 and under in many different ways.
Demonstrates addition with concrete objects (up to 6).
Demonstrates subtraction with concrete objects (up to 6).
Shape and Size	Develops descriptions and models of 2D shapes.
	Combines and changes 2D shapes.
	Uses non-standard measurement for length.
Mathematical Decision Making	Explains mathematical thinking with numbers, pictures or words (either orally or written).
	Patterns	Recognizes, describes, and creates simple patterns.

Kindergarten
													Names		Structure of Matter	Science
													Groups objects based upon observable characteristics.		The Earth	Science
													Explains how weather patterns are related to seasonal cycles.		Personal Health/Care	Health
													Will demonstrate personal hygiene skills. (A1, C2)		Prevention and Control of Diseases
													Identifies which school and community health helpers are needed in given situations. (B1)		Safety
													Identifies at least one safety rule and tells why it is important. (A3, C1)		Communication in Health
													Demonstrates healthy ways to express needs, wants, and feelings both verbally and nonverbally. (E1, E2)		Civics and Government	Social Studies
													Identifies and practices classroom rights and responsibilities.		History	Social Studies
													Compares own life and personal history to that of classmates			Social Studies